Louis Koutelas - Hunter Marine Surveyors

27 February 2017,

To Whom It May Concern,

Captain Louis Koutelas, a highly experienced seafarer and marine surveyor has been working closely with us at QML Services in our role of providing Logistics and Shipping Documentation services to the bulk commodity industry, since 2009.

In addition, Louis is a presenter on our highly respected Commodity Chain Logistics Courses that we have hosted regularly in Newcastle and Singapore.

Louis' broad and very deep knowledge of marine functions, developed from years of experience, passion and dedication to the industry.

Like QML Services, Hunter Marine Surveyors is progressive in the use of modern technology and platforms, and always looking for innovative ways to deliver higher value to our customers, without compromising quality or integrity.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Brett Thomas'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name 'Brett' and last name 'Thomas' clearly legible.

Brett Thomas
